

EXECUTIVE CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN INSURANCE – NYANDARUA COUNTY

The Insurance Regulatory Authority (IRA) is the Government agency mandated with regulating, supervising and developing the insurance industry in Kenya.

As part of its developmental agenda, Authority has partnered with the College of Insurance to train, examine and issue certificates in the Executive Certificate of Proficiency (ECOP) in Insurance.

The College of Insurance is a public training institution in Kenya with the mandate to carry out training and certification in professional insurance programmes.

Objective of the ECOP programme

The ECOP programme is intended to impart knowledge of insurance to Kenyans at the Counties and enable them earn income through selling insurance. It also aims to encourage them to buy insurance to meet their own needs.

Target group

The programme targets to train one hundred (100) residents of Nyandarua County and issue them with Certificate of Proficiency (ECOP) in Insurance. The target group includes, but not limited to, school leavers, community leaders, persons involved in other trades and professions, women group leaders, small traders, leaders of local organizations, and religious leaders who are residents of the county

Benefits of the training to trainees

The training offers many benefits to the trainee. These include:
